

To,

The family members of Late Prof. (Dr.) Prabin Chandra Das,

CONDOLENCE

The family (the Publisher, the Advisory Board members, the Editorial Board members, the Reviewers and the well-wishers) of the Drishti:the Sight(2319-8281)--- a UGC-CARE-listed Research Journal is deeply saddened to hear the demise of Prof. (Dr.) Prabin Chandra Das, Former Head, Dept. of Folklore, and Former Secretary University Classes, Gauhati University, who had remained closely associated with this journal as an Honourable Member of the Advisory Board since its inception.

The journal feels specially honoured to have been able to draw the goodwill and support from such an esteemed academician and great folklorist and by this Condolence-note, the family of the Drishti:the Sight sincerely acknowledges his valuable contributions to the journal and pledges to carry forward his dream to make this a gem among the few national research journals.

Dr. Das was a pioneer in bringing a fresh lease of life into the folklore research in the North-east region. A man of warm-hearted nature, Dr. Das could win him many a friends and followers. His devotion to the social welfare and love and affection to his students and scholars will always be remembered.

Words never seem enough to describe what a grave loss his demise is for the academia!

The Drishti:the Sight expresses its heartfelt sympathy to all the bereaved members of his family at this moment of loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with them at this difficult time.

In expressing again that this journal will always cherish the memories of this great soul, I, on behalf of all concerned, would pray to the almighty for his place in the heavenly abode.

.....May his departed soul rest in peace.....

(Dr. Dipak Jyoti Baruah)

Chief Editor, Drishti:the Sight /06-09-2022